MISSIONARY RALLY FOR WESTERLY

Protestant Churches to Unite in Special Service—Sale of Osbrook Grove—No-License Campaign—Speakers for Dinner of Young Men's Republican Club.

With two vaudeville and moving picture houses in full swing in Westerly and the younger element down to the minute in all that relates to sports, is in marked contrast to the conditions that prevailed here less than thirty years ago, when things that are now encouraged would not then be tolerated. Rev. Frederic Denison, author of Westerly and Its Wonders, wrote in 1878 of the public amusements in this style, which is even more interesting reading today than when it was penned twenty-nine years ago.

Each generation has its popular pastime. Of late the young men of our country have awakened a very warm enthusiasm for forming boat clubs, and indulging occasionally in rowing matches. The young men of Westerly—athletic clerks and strong-armed mechanics—have had their two organizations of this kind and their long, light, beautiful boats.

There exists also at present a fashion which is well nigh a fever of ball playing. Every village has its baseball club. Westerly did boast of three such companies—the Niantics, the Pawtuckets and the Emmets. Among these the spirit of rivalry was high and constant; the smooth lands around the town were the arenas where they contended for victory and where crowds of people resorted to witness the contests. A club also existed at White Rock. The young ladies, meanwhile, with the less robust and muscular of the male sex, may be seen on many a lawn and quiet house lot, engaged in the popular game of croquet. This amusement, as well as the ball playing, has been reduced to a sort of science, calling into use text books, lessons and umpires.

Westerly has never given its moral sanction to card playing or billiards. An attempt to open a billiard saloon in 1886 was promptly put down by the public voice; but in 1887, tables were licensed on the Stonington side. Pinnies, secular and religious, connected with Sabbath schools, have been in vogue for a generation. Parties visit all localities, especially Noyes beach, Watch Hill, Osbrook grove, and Lantern Hill.

The town is annually visited by circuses, attended by musicians, singers and clowns, always drawing around them the lower class of society, and while ministering to the amusements of the young, leaving a stain of low and dissipating memories.

"Since the opening of public halls in Westerly, various wandering companies, bands, troupes, mostly comic and vulgarly theatrical, are often flaunting their handbills in the streets and seducing vulgar crowds to attend on their mimics. Usually the character of the acts commensurate with the scenes. Such coarse buffoonery, set off by stale songs and monkey dances, only degrades and corrupts the spectators. Yet every populous town, in these modern times, is afflicted with these imported nuisances under the cloak of amusements.

"For some years past the various Sabbath schools in Westerly have had a pleasant and profitable custom of observing Christmas eve or Christmas evening, enjoying songs, addresses, and exhibitions of Santa Claus, closing with refreshments and the distribution of gifts. Very Puritanism has smoothed its brow in reference to Christmas."

Frank W. Coy has sold for the owner of Osbrook grove the old house that is a landmark for the grove and known as the Osbrook house, to James Cooper of Westerly, conditioned that the house be removed within a reasonable period. This house was originally built for Joseph Crandall upon leased land. Osbrook grove was for many years a popular picnic ground and is located on Osbrook point, Little Narragansett bay, at the mouth of the Pawtucket river.

Several years ago Mr. Coy sold the property for the heirs of John Davis to Joseph Litt, manager of the Broadway theater, New York, and several other theaters in large cities. After the death of Mr. Litt, the property was again sold by Mr. Coy to Miss M. Louise Sullivan of New York, the present owner. It is understood that Miss Sullivan intends extensive improvements and converting the place into a modern and desirable summer resort.

Town Sergeant Herbert P. Clark has received a warrant to summon for a hearing named to serve as jurors at the November term of the superior court, to convene at Kingston: George H. Uter, Alexander Beattie, Michael J. Sullivan, William J. Beckham, Charles L. Scott, grand jury; H. Church, James McKenzie, Peter R. Scott, Samuel M. Sharpe, Stephen W. Collins, Albert F. Williams, Abraham Leiboldt, James H. Blackler, Arthur E. Briggs, petit jury.

The Protestant churches of Westerly will unite in a missionary rally in the First Baptist church, next Sunday evening, to be conducted by laymen, in common with a like movement in over seventy cities in the United States, for consideration of the great missionary opportunity now before the churches. Ex-Gov. George H. Uter will preside and addresses will be made by Edward P. Metcalf, president of the Atlantic National bank of Providence, and E. G. Hooper, general secretary of the Providence branch of the Young Men's Christian association. The evening service will be held in the Broad Street Christian church, at which Mrs. George W. Rigler will preside. The address will be delivered by Miss Helen S. Lathrop of Providence.

Charles Perry will preside at the notice rally, next Sunday afternoon, in the Elfen opera house, which has been arranged for by the no-license committee of Westerly.

William P. Conery of Lynn, who assisted materially in carrying that city to no-license, will be the principal speaker. He is familiarly referred to as "Bill" Conery, and in his way, is a forcible speaker, being witty and possessed of natural eloquence. Samuel H. Davis, now a lawyer of Westerly, formerly pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist church here, and at so superintendent of the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon league, will also address the meeting.

Town Clerk Everett E. Whipple has received by express from the secretary of state the official ballots to be used next Tuesday in the state election. There are 162 voting districts in the state. Sixty ballots are sent out by the state secretary for each fifty voters or fractional part thereof. As the total number of voters in Rhode Island is $8,168, the number of ballots issued is in excess of 105,000. As at the last election, Hibernian hall has been selected as the polling place for the town of Westerly.

Bishop McVicker will preach the sermon at the Monday evening service of the seventy-fifth anniversary of Christ Episcopal church, Westerly.

The members of the Westerly own council will meet this (Thursday) evening as a board of canvassers to correct the voting list to be used in Tuesday's elections.

Miss Katherine D. Bennett left Westerly for New York Wednesday, and will sail from there today (Thursday) for Bremen in the steamship Prinz Frederick Wilhelm. She will spend several months in Berlin in recreation and study.

John McCloy, formerly of Westerly, now of New London, was severely bitten by a dog, Tuesday afternoon. The dogs were fighting, and Mr. McCloy assisted in their separation. One of the animals bit him in the hand and arm, the wounds requiring medical attention.

Judge Edward M. Burke has been selected to master for the annual dinner of the Young Men's Republican club of Westerly. The regular speakers are Percy Gardner and Richard W. Jennings of Providence, and ex-Gov. George H. Uter and Samuel H. Davis of Westerly.

"THE RUSH OF '49"

Novel Feature of Stockton's Celebration—Early California Days Illustrated.

Stockton, Cal., Oct. 27.—Today's features of Stockton's celebration of "The Rush of '49" were designed to illustrate the dangers attending life in the early mining camps.

An emigrant train was attacked by a band of Indians, many white women fell and were scalped before the rescuing party from Roaring Camp could reach the scene.

Soon afterward the regular stage from Shurt Tail Gulch was held up within shooting distance of Roaring Camp. The vigilantes started in pursuit of the robbers and captured them. They were given a prompt trial, found guilty and strung up.

Fact Crane Overlooked.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It always itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
